WHEREAS, in March, we celebrate American Red Cross Month by honoring our neighbors who make its humanitarian mission possible in the state of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, every day, their acts of kindness change lives, bringing relief, comfort, and hope when help can't wait; and

WHEREAS, this compassionate spirit runs deep in our community, just as it has for 145 years through the American Red Cross; and

WHEREAS, today those who serve with the American Red Cross throughout Missouri light the way during emergencies – whether it's delivering shelter, food, and comfort after disasters; providing a safe, lifesaving blood supply for patients facing conditions like cancer treatments, childbirth complications, and traumatic injuries; assisting military members, veterans, and their families with 24/7 global support; or empowering individuals with skills like first aid and CPR that save lives; and

WHEREAS, these collaborative efforts are a powerful reminder that the strength of our community lies in our shared commitment to one another; and

WHEREAS, as we mark Red Cross Month, the state of Missouri celebrates our local heroes and resolves to continue lifting each other up, so no one faces an emergency alone.
