Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the freedom and security that citizens of Missouri and the United States enjoy today are the direct result of the brave men and women who have served our country in the Armed Forces during times of conflict and peace; and

WHEREAS, it has long been our custom to commemorate November 11th, the anniversary of the ending of World War I, by paying tribute to the heroes of that tragic struggle and by rededicating ourselves to the cause of peace; and

WHEREAS, let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly on the seas, in the air, and on foreign shores to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us renew our consecration to the task of promoting and enduring peace so that their efforts shall not be in vain; and
